Digital Directory Partnership

The AOP creates website content, newsletters, research reports, awards, and digital and in-person events to help publishers ensure that they are informed, inspired, and able to grow their businesses. Investing in a Digital Directory partnership gives you a platform to promote your organisation and the solutions it provides where publishers go to seek information - on the AOP website and through our weekly Digital Digest newsletter.

Digital Directory Partnership benefits...

- A listing on the AOP website Digital Directory of solutions providers, clicking through to your profile page
- Profile page on the AOP website - including copy about your organisation, full contact details, and the opportunity to host articles, case studies, reports, and video or audio content - plus of course links to your own site
- New content on your profile page will be promoted via the AOP’s weekly newsletter, the Digital Digest (circulation +2700 and growing)

Annual Digital Directory Partnership Fee: £950
Associate Membership of the AOP gives you all the promotional benefits of the Digital Directory Partnership and much more – enabling you to build your relationships with publishers. Open to solutions providers and business partners of the digital publishing sector, AOP Associate Membership is designed to develop and encourage strong partnerships between member publishing companies and their trading partners.

Associate Member benefits...

Host a Publisher Roundtable

Hosting a publisher roundtable provides the opportunity to learn from the conversation and to demonstrate your commitment to working with publishers to develop new opportunities and solve challenges.

- Work with the AOP team to propose a topic that engages with publisher interests and aligns with your objectives.
- Suggest publishers you would most like to engage with: the AOP will then manage the invitations to create your roundtable group.
- Host the discussion for up to 6 publishers – providing a welcome introduction to the session.
- AOP can moderate the discussion or help to coordinate a moderator if needed, ensuring that your representatives’ perspectives are included and that you have the best opportunity to gain real insights.

Please note: There are associated costs to be covered by the Host around venue and catering.

Fee: £3,000

Host a webinar in association with the AOP

Partner with the AOP to host a webinar to raise your profile, broadcast your expertise to the targeted audience, and generate leads.

- Work with the AOP team to propose a topic and speakers which will engage with publisher interests and align with your objectives.
- The AOP will be happy to provide a session chair or panel moderator if required, plus the webinar platform and registration management.
- Have your webinar listed on the AOP events calendar and events pages, as “in partnership with the AOP”.
- The AOP will promote your webinar through a minimum of two stand-alone emails, Digital Digest mentions, and LinkedIn posts.
- Receive the data for all registered and attending webinar delegates.

Fee: £5,000
